

Expertise with Local Roots and National Reach*Greetings!*Sage ERP Free Features

If you have a current subscription to your Sage ERP software, did you know your license includes several other Sage products that can enhance your user experience? These enhancements allow you to extend your system to give you greater control and functionality in order to provide greater customer service and reduced operational expenses.

For example, your Sage 100 and 300 systems include a license for 1-3 users for Sage CRM, the award-winning customer relationship management system. The CRM licensing includes seamless integration to your ERP system. Among other things, Sage CRM allows you to provide greater customer service as well as allowing you to create and manage your own marketing campaigns.

You also receive a license for Sage Intelligence, the integrated reporting tool used to extend the reporting capabilities of the base ERP reporting functionality. This tool allows the user to create and maintain customer reports with an easy to learn interface.

Another feature is access to Sage Inventory Advisor, the system that enhances control over your purchasing and inventory systems. This system will analyze your inventory status every night in the cloud, resulting in action items and purchasing suggestions in an easy to use interface, all integrated with your ERP system.

If you want to learn about these features, as well as some others like built in bar code tracking functionality, contact your WAC partner for more information.

Sincerely,
WAC Solution Partners Team
